EnviroPad® - Large

Product Code: 01-1106

Product Features

For gardening contractors and other repair professionals with multiple items of gear, these pads are a reputational life saver. They're the ultimate way to prevent oil and fuel leaks and spills, keep consciences clear, and maintain your green credentials too.

The EnviroPads will permanently lock-up any hydrocarbon drips and over-pours while repelling rain and water. (You can even hose them down to clean them!) The job site will be pristine. And everyone will be happy - the planet included.

Robust but lightweight, they're quick and easy to lift, transport, and deploy and a sound investment in a better business, and everyone's future.
