EnviroPad® - Medium

Product Code: 01-1105

Product Features

With environmental standards and expectations continuing to rise, handy EnviroPads are a product whose time has definitely come. The perfect size for placing under gear including generators, they make sure any oil or fuel leak, or spill, is instantly and permanently transformed into solid rubber. Just like that.

They take care of our planet and companies' reputations at the same time. Not to mention preventing those annoying marks and stains on hard surfaces!

Suitable for indoor and outdoor use, they are impervious to rain and 100% leak-free. (So, no more oily rain puddles!)
